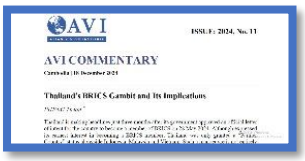
AVI Monthly Newsletter

November & December 2024

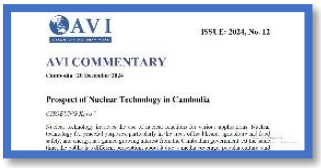
AVI Commentary: Thailand's BRICS Gambit and Its Implications



With its 'Partner Country' status in BRICS, Thailand aims to boost its economy and regional influence, juggling multiple diplomatic fronts in a shifting global landscape, all while balancing its role in ASEAN.

Read More:
https://asianvision.org/archives/publications/avi-commentary-issue-2024-no-11-thailands-brics-gambit-and-its-implications

AVI Commentary: Prospect of Nuclear Technology in Cambodia



This article demonstrates that nuclear technology offers Cambodia transformative potential to improve the current status across various key sectors mainly human health, agriculture and food safety and energy contributing to Cambodia's sustainable development and socioeconomic progress while maintaining public safety and trust.

Read more:
https://asianvision.org/archives/publications/avi-commentary-issue-2024-no-12-prospect-of-nuclear-technology-in-cambodia

AVI and the Christian Democratic Institute Signed MoU on Intellectual Exchange and Research Cooperation

On 18 November 2024, in Siem Reap Province, the Asian Vision Institute (AVI) and the Christian Democratic Institute (CDI) marked a significant milestone with the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding on Intellectual Exchange and Research Cooperation.

This strategic partnership aims to foster mutual understanding, advance collaborative research and promote knowledge-sharing on key global politics, public diplomacy and international cooperation. Together, AVI and CDI will contribute to innovative solutions and sustainable development across borders.

The Outcomes of the "Cambodia-China in a New Era: Fish and Rice Corridor" Project

The Outcomes of the "Cambodia-China in a New Era: Fish and Rice Corridor" Project

For more:
https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1fMBtpMl7bpO3hhCt8IZ741Zf0Pc8s_JH?usp=drive_link

AVI and the Moscow State Institute of International Relations Signed MoU on Intellectual Exchange and Research Cooperation

On November 14, 2024, in Moscow, Russia, the Asian Vision Institute (AVI) and the Moscow State Institute of International Relations (MGIMO) sparked a significant milestone with the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on Key Developments of Cooperation: International Relations, Public Policy, and Sustainable Development. This MoU establishment aims to promote collaboration in the areas of education, research, and cultural exchange.

AVI Met Delegation from the Chinese People's Association for Peace and Disarmament

On 04 December 2024, AVI, led by the President Dr. Chheng Kimlong met and exchanged views with the delegation from the Chinese People's Association for Peace and Disarmament (CPAPD), led by Dr. Tao Tao, Deputy Secretary General of CPAPD at the AVI Office.

The discussion mainly focused on Cambodia's foreign policy, Cambodia-China bilateral relations, the evolving geopolitical landscape in ASEAN and the Asia-Pacific region, regional security challenges, the super powers geopolitical competition and other issues of common interest.

Asian Vision Institute
#25 St. 566, Boeung Kok 2, Toul Kork, Phnom Penh, www.asianvision.org,
admin@asianvision.org, (+855) 99 841 445