

Special Dialogue on Hun Sen's Worldview with Prof. Dr. Path Kosal

Dr. Kosal Path is an Associate Professor of Political Science at Brooklyn College and International Relations faculty member at the Graduate Center, The City University of New York. He is currently an advisor of Asian Vision Institute. He received his doctoral degree in International relations from the University of Southern California (USC) in 2008. He had taught international relations of the Asia-Pacific at USC from 2009 to 2011 before joining Brooklyn College in 2013. He is the author of Vietnam's Strategic Thinking During the Third Indochina War (The University of Wisconsin Press, 2020). His current book projects focus on (1) the politics of asymmetry in Cambodia's relations with Vietnam and China & (2) the history of Vietnam's decade in Cambodia, 1978-1989.

Link: https://fb.watch/f_ewlO09C8/

Cambodia's ASEAN Chairmanship 2022: Preparation and Ways Forward for the 40th and 41st ASEAN Summits

Link: <https://fb.watch/f-wOmvCrnG/>

Read: <https://www.asianvision.org/archives/15645>

AVI Co-organized the Digital Technology Roadmap Workshop #1

On 4 October 2022, the Centre for Inclusive Digital Economy (CIDE) at the Asian Vision Institute (AVI), co-organized the Digital Technology Roadmap Workshop #1, with support from the Ministry of Industry, Science, Technology, and Innovation (MISTI) of Cambodia and the Science and Technology Policy Institute (STEPI) of South Korea.

Think Tank 2022 Public Lecture Series

Link: <https://fb.watch/gjeptCxgFb/>

Chairman of AVI Shares Views at the Editors' Roundtable

Dr Sok Siphana, Chairman of AVI, sharing his views on the evolving global and regional geopolitical landscape and ASEAN community building at the editors' roundtable co-organised by ERIA and Khmer Times on 18 October 2022. He is optimistic that ASEAN will remain relevant and kicking. Interdependence and interconnectedness will remain the defining features of global politics and governance. The US-led decoupling efforts cannot be realised- it's against the market rules. RCEP is the game in town. Globalisation is here to stay. Multilateralism is the key. Diversification strategy is a must.

AVI Voice: Russia's Possibility in Using the Tactical Nuclear Weapon in the War with Ukraine

AVI Voice: Russia's Possibility in Using the Tactical Nuclear Weapon in the War with Ukraine

Link: <https://www.asianvision.org/archives/15750>

ASEAN Economic Club Opens with Call for Inclusive and Sustainable Recovery

Link: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1X2Oj7M_v2M

AVI Joins Cambodia Climate Change Summit 2022 \(CCCS22\)

On 18-19 October 2022, the Research Associates at the Mekong Centre for Strategic Studies (MCSS) of the Asian Vision Institute (AVI) joined Cambodia Climate Change Summit 2022 (CCCS22) and hosted a session on "Cambodian Youths' Contribution in Promoting Sustainability" to enhance the environmental awareness and strengthen resilience in responding to climate change.

AVI-SDGs Dialogue

The seventeenth session of the AVI-SDGs Dialogue Series on “Sustainable Transportation in Cambodia” will highlight Cambodia’s progress and challenges in promoting the transportation sector to become cleaner and sustainable for the environment.

Link: <https://fb.watch/gngGFldu9o/>