AVI Shared Views on the Outcomes of Visits by PM Lee Hsien Loong and PM Anwar Ibrahim to China

Dr. Chheang Vannarith, President of AVI, shared his views on the outcomes of the visits of PM Lee Hsien Loong and PM Anwar Ibrahim to China. He said the green economy, digital economy, science, technology, and innovation are the new focus areas in the bilateral cooperation between China and the two Southeast Asian countries. The cooperation focuses more on high-quality and future-oriented growth areas. For Singapore, it aims to realise the Green Plan, launched in February 2021. Malaysia aims to be the regional hub of e-commerce and the digital economy.

AVI Published New Article in Fulcrum on "Making Sense of Cambodia's Reaction to AUKUS"

In his new article published by Fulcrum, Mr Bong Chansambath, Deputy Director of the Centre for Inclusive Digital Economy at the Asian Vision Institute, explains Cambodia's reaction to the AUKUS submarine deal revealed last month by the US, the UK, and Australia. He argues that Cambodia's response can be described as "lukewarm" due to its concerns about what AUKUS will do to regional stability, the international nuclear non-proliferation regime, and the West's indifferent attitude towards Cambodia's maritime security needs.
