

Special Seminar on “EU-Cambodia Relations for Regional Connectivity and Peace”

On 12 January 2024, the Asian Vision Institute in collaboration with the National Assembly of Cambodia held a special seminar on “EU-Cambodia Relations for Regional Connectivity and Peace”.

AVI Commentary: Why Cambodia Needs a Comprehensive Review of its Existing Free Trade Agreements

This article presents the potential of a comprehensive review of Cambodia’s existing Free Trade Agreements (FTAs). While FTAs have facilitated trade and economic growth, relying solely on a limited set of exports for all markets creates vulnerabilities.

Read more: <https://asianvision.org/archives/publications/avi-commentary-issue-2024-no-01-why-cambodia-needs-a-comprehensive-review-of-its-existing-free-trade-agreements>

AVI Commentary: Cambodia’s “unwavering support” to Timor Leste’s ASEAN Membership: What is the motivation?

This paper aims to explore the potential diplomatic avenues through which Cambodia stands to benefit from deepening its partnership with Timor Leste.

Read more: <https://asianvision.org/archives/publications/avi-commentary-issue-2024-no-02-cambodias-unwavering-support-to-timor-lestes-asean-membership-what-is-the-motivation>

MoU Signed Between AVI, ASEAN Youth Advocates Network, and WEduShare

On 27 January 2024, the Asian Vision Institute, ASEAN Youth Advocates Network Cambodia, and WEduShare signed a Memorandum of Understanding establishing a new collaborative partnership.

AVI Celebrates 5th Anniversary and New President Takes Office

The Asian Vision Institute (AVI), a renowned independent think tank based in Phnom Penh, celebrated five years of academic contributions across various sectors in Cambodia. The milestone event also saw Dr. Chheng Kimlong inaugurated as AVI's new president, who revealed his vision for the organization's key priorities during his tenure.

Read more:

<https://www.khmertimeskh.com/501424168/avi-celebrates-5th-anniversary-new-president-takes-office/>